St. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—The fifth game of the world's championship series to-day between the Chicagos and St. Louis Browns was a very tame affair, the latter winning easily by a score of 10 to 3. The new umpiring plan was revived, and the few close decisions satisfied every one. Quest implied for Chicago, MeQuade for St. Louis, and Kelly officiated heavier the pitcher's box and second base as the referee. The playing on both sides was very loose, the battiti, heavy, and the errors numerous. The Chicagos seemed for once to have lost confidence in themselves, and played a wretched game, both at the bat and in the field. Flint especially distinguished himself by many cestly errors, the Browns secring twice on passed bails and once on a wild throw to third base. Williamson pitched for the Chicagos in the first inning, but was snocked completely out of the box, and Ryan occupied that position for the remainder of the game. The latter did good work for a time, but as soon as Flint began to play out he was collect to case up and toos the balls slowly over the plate, and was therefore, baried freely and hard. Burns, in right field, made two; costly errors, allowing two men to score who otherwise would have been left on bases. Hudson pitched for the Browns, and did most excellent work, only three hits being made of his delivery. This was bis first effort with the Chicagos, and he held the champions down to three hits, one being made by Anson in the last inning when it was almost too dark to see the ball. Bushong caught him in his usual brilliant style. Cayruthers did some brilliant betting at critical points in the game, have very large, it being estimated that 16,000 with nessed the same. The game was called in the seventh liming on account of darkness. Of the game, and finded in spiendid syle. The attendance was very large, it being estimated that 16,000 with nessed the same. abundance of the finest articles of gentlemen's attire, and a vast quantity of choice materials ready to be so applied, mot the view. The store itself is admirably arranged for the purpose, has the aid of ample skylights, the furniture of mirrors, and all other luxuries and requirements. Artistic skill of the highest character is here employed properly to adorn "the human form divine." The accomplished firm has had vast experience in its important specialty, and no suits, either there constructed or recommended there, have ever been received by disappointment or met with objection on trial. The very name of "Barnum" has come to signify satisfaction. It is well known throughout our fashionable and refined metropolis that no inferior wares can issue with their sanction, and such is the confidence inspired by this magnificent depot that no anxiety attends the mind of any customer after he has given his order. The members of the firm devote their most careful personal attention to every applicant. This their own sense of duty, their own pleasure and pride demands. They are ever ready to furnish advice as to materials, adaptability to any particular cassaid, in general, the aid which time and study has rendered them so unusually compotent to bestow. All their visitors appendix herein their friends, so evident is their friendly disposition toward all. They may well be envied for the influence they have so worthly won. Their desire, their effort, and their success is to do the very best possible in every case. The advertisement of Barnum & Co., is conspicuous in our paper of to-day, and thereto we invite the attention of all gentlemen who can appreciate the excellences offered. lemen who can appreciate the excellence

"Esmeralda" at the Iosane Asylum.

Some ladies and gentlemen of Hyatts-ville, Md., presented last evening in the large concert hall of St. Elizabeth Hospital, for the entertainment of the patients of that institution, the dramatized version of Mrs. Burpett's beautiful story of "Esmeralda." The performance was a decided success, and was punctuated with loud applause from the patients and the numerous visitors and was punctuated with loud applause from the patients and the numerous visitors who had accompanied the dramatic amateurs. Of the play it must be remarked that Miss Belle McCullough was a charming Fernerskin, and that Misses Moille and Lucretia Wells, as sisters of Jack Desmond, sustained their parts with unusual grace and vivacity. Miss Louise Fuller made a capital farmer's wife, and Mr. S. C. Elliott, as Dave Hardy, maintained his reputation as the best amateur actor in Washington. The other gentlemen, Messrs. R. P. Evans, Walter Wells, Rexford Smith, J. B. Burnside, and A. B. Hyatt composed a strong support. The entire company deserves much credit for the interest taken and the time and labor expended upon this benevolent work. The Misses Wells and Mr. Elliott are ringlenders in the Well-doing, and as such, have their reward in the pleasure they conferred upon a great number of people whose darkened minds are necessarily cut off from mental sunshine.

Among the visitors were Mr. W. B. McCullough, of Highlands, Md.; and from the neighborhood of Hyattsville were Misses Intitle Tinker, Grey, Middleton, Hall, Hyatt, Fuller, Whiting, accompanied by Messrs, Edlin, Lewis, and Hyatt. The dramatic company was under the management of Mr. S. C. Elliott, After the performance, when the patients retired, the guests and local authorities "broke away" into a dance, which wound up with a most agreeable supper provided by the kindness of the resident physicians and their friends.

American Fine Art Exhibition. The American fine art exhibition will b epened in London on the 2d day of May, 887, and will close on the 31st day of 1887, and will close on the 31st day of October following. Works of fine art will be arranged in a building erected especially for the purpose. The structure will be of iron and glass, thoroughly fire-proof, and adapted in every respect to all the requirements of this department. The department of fine arts is open for the exhibition of art work of America, irrespective of class of previously. bitton of art work of America, irrespective of place of production. No charge will be made for space or for the storage of cases. All works of art must be of a high order of merit, and will be admitted to the exhibition only on the approval of the committee on selection, composed of artists. All selected works of art contributed from this country will probably be exhibited in the city of New York preceding shipment to London. The charge of the department of fine arts has been placed in care of Mr. John Sartain, with the head office at 762 Chestnut street, Philladelphia. It is believed "that the American artists can, if they will, make an exhibit, not only attracting distinguishing notice abroad, but by reflection producing an incalculably important impression at home."

The Barbaric Splendor of the East

Imitated With Advantage. Doubtless, the world improves, but strange to say fashion remains a thing of custom rather than of beauty. One humly follows "the fashloo" regardless of what beautiful or symmetrical. Who will pretend to say to-day that the chignen or crinoline of the past were beautiful, and who ollic of the past were beautiful, and who will say, when the present fashion is no more, that the abnormal scructures now wern by ladies have a simple merit apart from being fashionable. It is in the decorations of our homes that is seen the vast improvement in fashions. The so-called "barbaric splender of the east" has been imitated to advantage; at least, as regards the textures and colors of the drapings now the fashion for furniture, and even taking the place of doors.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

Special Arrangements for the Attendance of the Schools To-Day.

Mr. John T. Johnson delivered an address last night at the industrial exhibition. The number in attendance was very large, and they manifested their appreciation of Mr. Johnson's efforts by frequent applause. He said that there are commercial, political, and religious reasons why the negro should improve himself commerciall. It is a law of nature and of grace that the non-improvement of gifts works a forfeiture thereof. The one talent was taken from the man who had falled to improve the same. The capabilities of the negro for improvement are vast in this, that he lives in a country rich in climate and in resources.

The splendid country which is ours in common with all the people is sufficient by well directed efforts to give abundance to all. There can be no reason why the negro should not share in all the glory of the country. The negro need not fear but that all his just rights will be protected if education is the privilege of all to be secured by the state. Our future under God will be just what we make it. Let us meet the increased responsibilities that are upon us, and be faithful to the duties of the present hour. He said that there are commercial, politi-

To-day special arrangements have been made for the school children.

No Arrangement Entered Into. EDITOR NATIONAL REPUBLICAN: A reader of the article in your's of to-day, entitled 'Lincoln and Chase," might infer that there was some arrangement by which the friends of Mr. Chase supported Mr. Lincoln at the Baltimore convention of 1864. As a matter of fact, Mr. Chase had withdrawn from the of fact, Mr. Chase had withdrawn from the position of candilate some time before the assault of Frank Blair upon him, which ied to the incidents mentioned. There was never an active canvass by his friends. His elevation of character and dignity of bearing in his position made partisanship in his favor impossible. Six weeks or two months would cover quite the entire period of his candidacy. The election of Gov. Demison to the presidency of the Baltimore convention was more a personal compliment to him than a concession to the friends of the Secretary of the Treasury, who, in the convention and canvass after, gave the most cordial and hearty support to the President. Respectfully, Modern Language Classes. Prof. Ebon de Ghent, a distinguished graduate of the University of Paris, and graduate of the University of Paris, and late professor of French and German in the University of New York, is now engaged in forming classes for the winter at his rooms in the Young Men's Christain Association building of this city. M. de Ghent speaks French, German, Italiau, Spanish, Russian, English, and almost as many other languages as would constitute him a modern Mezzofanti. He has lived in almost every European country, and has taken an every European country, and has taken an every European country, and has taken an active part in many of the great revolutionary movements. He is probably the best authority in Washington upon the literature and politics of Europe, and his methods of teaching are as sound as his knowledge is wide and accurate. His charges are moderate, as each member of his classes is only charged $21$ for eight lessons ner month. crate, as each memoer of are comper month, charged $1 for eight lessons per month. A Beautiful Example to Imitate. Last evening, at the Bijou, a lady wearng a Washington monument hat, chancing o look behind observed several members of the audience wagging their heads like Japanese in their effort to get a glimpse of the stage. Instantly comprehending the situation, she removed her hat and bore it on her lap through the remainder of the performance. Glory of her sex! What damsel will imitate the beautiful example?

Urage vine arbors are to adorn the grounds to the west of the house, and sov-eral cows of tine breed and other blooded stock are to be stabled on the premises. He expects to do some of the granger work himself this fall and next spring, if for ex-ercise only. He has been advised that a man of his full habit doing so much mental man of his full hands doing so much mental worst beeds something more invigorating than riding out for an hour or two.

The farm is so far from the pike that a passerby would have to scan the premises with a field glass to recognize any one about the house, so the President feels he can do his duty by himself without being watched.

can do his duty by himself without being watched.

A few days ago while enjoying the beautiful view from the upper porch of the farm house, Col. Wilson remarked to the President that he was very sensible in building the porch so wide, for it gave to the old house the appearance of larger proportions than it would otherwise have.

"That is the way an engineer officer looks at it," said Mr. Cleveland. "The ladies take a different view of its utility."

NEARING THE PRISON DOOR.

A Sentence in Three Cases of Burglary

Hanging Over Bud Warner. Bud Warner, who was acquitted in the criminal court last Friday on a trial for burglary, was again before the court yester-day. Assistant District Attorney Coyle brought to the attention of Justic MacArthur the fact that Warner, in the year 1880, was indicted in four cases of burglary, con victed in two, and plead guilty in the other two. He was sentenced to the Albany pen two. He was sentenced to the Albany pen-itentiary in one case for seven years, the extent of the law, and sentence was aus-pended in the remaining three. Warner had been tried before Justice James, and there seemed to be a difference of opinion as to his intention of imposing sentence— whether it covered one or the entire four cases. Justice MacArthur concluded he would consult Justice James and let him de-cide the question himself.

The wires on Saturday last brought good news to this city and some of its inhabitants. A dispatch giving the numbers which drew the large prizes in the Royal Havana Lottery, drawn at Havana on that day, and which always decide the tlekets bearing the same numbers in the Original Little Havana (Gould & Co.'s), of which Shipsey Company, 1249 Broadway, New York city, are general seents, announced that tleket No. 753 had drawn the capital prize of $20,000, and advising that the same had been sold here.

No. 753 had drawn the capital prize of $20,000, and advising that the same had been sold here.

Search was made for the holder or holders of this evidence of fortune in a small way, and they were found in the persons of C. H. Roberts, attorney and counselor-at-law, No. 1528 Twenty-ninth street northwest, who held two-fifths: H. D. Goodacker, No. 1724 G street northwest, who held one-fifth, and the remaining two-fifths were held by a gentleman resident in Washington, whose church standing would not permit him to allow the use of bis name, but who assigned his ticket for collection to John W. Clarke, of Roalyn, Va. Mr. Roberts and Mr. Clarke left here on Thursday evening "for the boodle," which was paid them ($10,000 in bans notes and $10,000 in gold coin) at the Brooklyn Bank on a check for that amount early on Friday morning. They state that there was no hestitation in the payment of the money to them or in the redemption of ticket No. 5518, the second capital prize in the same drawing, amounting to $4,000, which was presented to the general agents in their presence by a Mr. Meyer, of Exchange Place, New York city.

The gentleman who paid these amounts said it was a subject for congratulation that some one had been found who was willing that their names and address should be used as prizeholders. He said under their system of husiness they never used such names without the consent of the parties holding the ticket, and while it preserved the confidence patrons who were lucky reposed in them it necessarily made slow work in building up the Little Havana.

Honored at Home.

Bonored at Home. Dr. Wm. G. Green, the well-known one-armed soldier, who was among the first to of the pension division of the second comptroller's office) in the Treasury Department, has been nominated by the Republicans of his native county (Niagara, N., S.) for the best position is the county (Niagara, N.). comptroller's office) in the Treasury Department, has been nominated by the Republicans of his native county (Nigara, N. Y.) for the best position in the county, that of county clerk. His election is very certain, for the loyal people of the Cataract county of the Empire state have a habit of taking care of their crippled and disabled soldiers who have been kicked out of place by the Democratic party.

Anxious to Improve Other Avenues. The commissioners say that they are very anxious to extend and improve Maryland, naxious to extend and improve Maryland, New Hampshire, Georgia, Virginia, and New York avenues, as well as Massachusetts avenue. The latter improvement will add to the value of the property on the line of it. In the county the land is now assessed by the acre and used for agricultural purposes, and when improved it will be assessed for ten times as much. The result will of course have to rea for the people will, of course, have to pay for the improvement in taxes.

Wake Up. A very lively man who rises early in the morning is apt to think that all his neighbors should be like himself, and therefore to go about from door to door crying at each, "Wake Up!" An interesting story on this subject, in four chapters, will be found in another part of to day's NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. We merely mention the fact, Of ceurse, the reader will look for it immediately

He Found His Trunk Empty. Wm. Colburt, colored, is in the employ o Senator Cameron. By industry and thrift he managed to pave $300 or more, which sum he placed in his trunk in his room at 1131 Thirteenth street northwest for safe keeping. Last night on opening his trunk he discoved that his money was stolen. The police were notified.

Accidentally Shot. Charles Brown, a colored boy, while gunning yesterday afternoon beyond Benning's ning yesterday afternoon beyond Benning's bridge, was shot in the left arm by the acci-dental discharge of his gun. He was brought to the Freedman's Hospital, where amputa-tion was found necessary, and Dr. Purvis successfully performed the operation, as-sisted by Dr. Shadd.

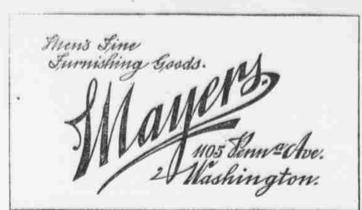

Not to Be Supervised by a Clerk. Assistant Secretary Fairchild has signified is intention to give his personal attention to the estimates of the District commis-sioners, complaint having been made that formerly the estimates were supervised and changed by a $1,400 clerk in the Treasury.

The Crop Reports. Commissioner Colman reports the crops throughout the country as generally very good this year, the yield being in excess of that of 1885. The cotton season has been too variable in temperature and precipita-tion for the best development and largest fruitage.

Death After Long Illness. Andrew J. Joyce, a son of the late A. J. oyce, the well-known carriage builder of this city, died early yesterday morning af-ter an illiness of several years, during which time he was a great sufferer. Lust of the Apaches Captured.

"I can't make it out," said the old-fashioned clothier, "I don't see how that 'ere Go'den Eagle Clothing Co. make a living; they violate every rule of the clothing business, as I understand it. They aint got the first idea of runnin' a clothing store. Why they oughter've been bankrupt long ago, and now they are doing the nicest business in Washington to-day. Why, sir, them 'ere people buy their goods for spot cash, discount every dollar's worth they buy. They don't credit nobody, so they never have no bad debts, and that's why they kin sell sich fine clothing for men and boys for about what they'd cost me at wholesale. Oh, they sell the finest kinds of goods for the lowest prices you ever heard of. They don't work off no old stuff on their customers, but gives 'em just what they expect-bright, crisp, and fashionable goods every time, and then they gives 'em their money back if the selections made don't please everybody to hum', includin' the hired girl. Now, you know as well as I do, that aint no way to run a clothing business. Wny people that'll act like that must be crazy, but here they are making money faster than Maud S can trot! They've made half a million in one year, and yet they give the people their money's worth right along. Durned if I can understand it." Goin'?

Well, good day; but what do you

ABATING A NUISANCE.

The city of New York declared that telegraph poles were a nuisance and must be done away with.

Many gentlemen declare that being
MEASURED FOR A SUIT OF CLOTHES
Is a nuisance, and this fact has stimulated the manufacturers of ready made clothing to produce goods that for STYLE, FIT, AND WORKMANSHIP
Can hardly be surpassed by the best merchant tailors.
Many gentlemen wait until the very day they need a suit, and then it must be had at once.

suit, and then it must be had at once. To the wants of these we have given particular atten-tion, and are prepared to fit them out with suits or odd garments cut precisely like the figures on the best Fall and Winter Fashion Plates. In fine, OUR READY MADE GOODS ARE AS STYLISH AS

CUSTOM MADE GOODS, And the man of ordinary build can be as well fitted as if he had his suit made to measure. In the matter of fitting we desire to emphasize the advantages in the cut of the GOODS MADE BY WANAMAKER, of Philadelphia. These goods are cut in "regular" sizes, and in addition they cut "longs", for slender men, "shorts" for men who are a little short, and "extra shorts" for corpulent men. Our stock is supplied largely from "Wanamaker's," and no one else has their goods but we carry also the newest no one else has their goods, but we carry also the newest and most popular styles of several of the largest and finest New York manufacturers.

We allow no accumulations of "old stock," and the customer can rely upon finding the newest and best things in the market in our store.

WE DON'T CARRY THE CHEAPEST GOODS; FIFTEEN DOLLARS IS OUR LOWEST PRICE FOR A CUTAWAY SUIT.

From that up to $40, which pays for a Fine English Silk-

Lined Prince Albert Suit, we show all the popular grades, and the popular styles of material.

At this season OUR OVERCOAT STOCK claims particular attention, and we invite all who are interested in overcoats to give it a careful inspection. IN BOYS SUITS AND OVERCOATS our stock is specially attractive and has in it the newest styles from the New York and Philadelphia manufacturers.

COME DOWN.

There are many things in this world that have to come down, and there are many reasons for the coming.

Perhaps the most noticeable come down is in the

PRICES OF CUSTOM CLOTHING.

A few years ago it was almost impossible to find a tailor who would make a suit to order for less than $35. When we began to advertise it was said that we couldn't do it; that others had tried that racket and failed.

GOOD ALL-WOOL SUITS TO OR-DER FOR $20,

If there is now any doubt as to our ability to make up to order for $20, $22.50, and $25, such doubt is only in the minds of those who have never given us a trial.

VERY STYLISH AND GOOD SUITS

If it was the custom to publish "testimonials" regarding tailoring, as it is in Patent Medicine business, we could show a LONG AND "HIGHLY RESPECTABLE" LIST OF CITIZENS have been convinced that there has been a Come Down in Prices without a Come Down in workmanship.
AS TO THE STYLE OF OUR WORK, Mr. McCarthy's name, as the one in charge of our Order Department, is a guarantee that it will be correct. Mr. McCarthy plays "second fiddle" to no cutter in Washington, and those who prefer, as some gentlemen always do and always will to have their clothes made to measure, can be sure of being carefully and handsomely fitted. Pantaloons made up in first class style, in twentyfour hours' notice.

E. B. BARNUM & CO., 931 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest.
